CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

24
19 September 1975

The Honorable Henry M. Jackson, Chairman
Subcommittee on Arms Control
Committee on Armed Services
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Jackson:

1. At your request, I have reviewed the testimony given by the DDS&T and me on Soviet compliance with the SALT ONE agreements before your subcommittee on 11 February 1975. I concur with the deletions you have indicated.
2. I recommend that the additional deletions, bracketed in red in the attached text, be made to protect intelligence sources and methods. The rationale for these additional deletions is attached.
3. The testimony has also been reviewed to insure that the U.S. agreement with the USSR to respect the confidentiality of SALT negotiations, including issues raised in the SCC, has been observed. It has also been reviewed to remove portions which might seem to conflict with U.S. positions taken in the on-going SALT negotiations and in the SCC. Deletions recommended from these reviews are bracketed in blue and are also justified in the attached rationale.
4. I would be pleased to consult with you with respect to these recommendations and to discuss summary language or paraphrasing to permit the publication of as much of the substance of this testimony as possible without revealing the specific material marked for deletion.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
